This is the story of Lee-Davis. . .its students and activities, its triumphs and defeats. Here, through word and picture, we have recorded the most memorable events of the school year. . .those which you will want to remember in years to come. We hope, particularly, that you will find this book full of pleasant memories, for each of you has worked constantly within the student body, and know the remarkable spirit that reigns at Lee-Davis High School.

DEDICATION

Our SENIOR CLASS has done its utmost to guide Lee-Davis along the road of success to become a leader...in scholastic achievement, in literary recognization, and in sports. They have worked hard to carefully set our standards high as we begin the traditions of Lee-Davis, and it is to our first graduating class that we, the student body, dedicate this yearbook.

"The Confederates" is dedicated not only to you as a class, but to you as individuals...to your loving care and devotion that you have shown for Lee-Davis... to you with whom we have shared our trials and tribulations, our joys and sorrows... and to you who have succeeded in making our student body one in heart and hand.

Long after you have gone, your memory will prevail within these rooms; wherever you go, may a part of Lee-Davis be with you.
